Deadline for applications: January 26th, 2020 (10 pm ESWT)

The Young Transatlantic Leadership program is a truly transatlantic, annually rotating, two-week immersive leadership exchange. In the course of the country visits and in collaboration with other program leaders/mentors/their hosts, they will lead various sessions and events that facilitate an honest transatlantic exchange.

The goal of the program is to

- help the participants discover new perspectives at a transatlantic level while providing first-hand experience (discussions, activities etc.)
- encourage local and regional participation of community leaders
- allow for the exchange of best-practices in different societal areas
- develop interpersonal bonds among participants
- build a transatlantic network for life-long learning and exchange

The Target Group of Participants are

- German and Canadian young community or professional leaders, who have proven themselves by standing out through their professional or personal impact on a local or regional community (in Canada or Germany),
- expected to be in the age range of 27 to 37 (exceptions are welcomed),
- have shown an interest or can prove reason for future interest in German-Canadian relationships at some level
- willing to travel internationally

The participation cost for the selected participants is 1000 euros /1500 Canadian dollars, which covers all primary costs including the following: Accommodation (for 11 nights), breakfast, all program activities, and local transportation (including transportation between Hamburg, Berlin and Frankfurt am Main). As the organizers aim to generate further funding, the cost might be reduced and participants might get a refund of overpaid fees.
